10. a. Action Reported by Field

1. A regular broadcast schedule was maintained by the clandestine radio. Because of the poor receptivity in Albania during the winter months and because of the decreased propaganda staff, only two completely new programs per week will be prepared during the winter season.

2. The official report on the tests utilizing two smaller 250 w transmitters, which were conducted in September, indicated that there was very little jamming activity on the test frequencies. However, the fact is that the test frequencies were all off the range of the ordinary radio set used in Albania.

3. Since during the winter months Albania lies in the skip zone of the transmission station in Athens, the field requested Headquarters to investigate the possibilities of transmitting from Germany or England, both of which lie within the zone of good reception. Conversations with the Communications Division disclose that there are no facilities in Germany or England which could be used for such a purpose.

4. Intercession with the Greek Foreign Office in the case of Mr. Niko Papalilo in the hope of obtaining permission for him to remain in Greece until a replacement on the propaganda staff could be found was unsuccessful. Mr. Papalilo departed from Greece for Italy on 30 October. This leaves only two Albanians on the propaganda staff. Efforts are being made to find qualified additions for the staff.

5. The radio programs during October dealt primarily with evidence of Enver Hoxha's declining power; appeals to Communist Party members on the themes of the policy of no revenge on Party members per se; the damage done to Albania by Communism; the Peza Conference; the Trieste settlement; the defections of Swiatlo and Wilhelm Prins; and the London nine-power pact.

b. Action Pending

Recruitment of qualified indigenous personnel for the propaganda staff in Athens.

c. Security Factors

No new information

d. Assets Terminated

Mr. Niko Papalilo left Greece for Italy on the insistence of the Greek authorities that he was no longer persona grata in Greece.
